How can solar lights help women in Timor-Leste?

As Timor-Leste moves toward prioritizing more climate-friendly development, clean energy is providing empowerment and opportunity for its people. With solar lights in their homes, women across the country can dream bigger, feel safer, and find new paths for growth and resilience.

What does renew do in Timor-Leste?

From 2003 to 2021, Renew worked with communities in Timor-Leste to provide clean, renewable lighting and electricity. We helped install solar lighting and power to more than 2,000 homes and over 100 community centres, orphanages, schools and hospitals in remote rural villages. We also helped train 180 village-based solar technicians.

Where does GEOMAR live in Timor-Leste?

Evenings were spent by the dim flickering candlelight, until the summer of 2024 when all that changed. Geomar lives in a small village in Suco Tutuluro, Manufahi Municipality, located in the southern part of Timor-Leste. She is a stay-at-home mother who manages her home and cares for her four children, while her husband works to support them.

How has solar light changed the lives of GEOMAR and her children?

With solar light, evenings have transformed for Geomar and her children. Instead of retreating inside when the sun sets, they have a newfound sense of security and freedom. The light has extended their time to do chores, study or simply be together as a family.
